THE ONE-ATTEMPT MAN OR WOMAN

who, for example, publishes a Want ad once, and if it does not bring the result desired decides that "advertising does not pay," should study the practical results, in all lines of endeavor, of perseverance. The law of "try again" is as potent in want advertising as in any other effort or enterprise.

For Bronchitis, Painful Cough, Whooping Cough and Colds

Cheapest Remedy Made at Home—128 Teaspoonfuls for 50 Cents

When in need of a remedy for the treatment of Bronchial Affections, such as Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Stomach Coughs, Colds or Hoarseness, don't simply ask the druggist for a "Cough Medicine," but get the best. Tell him to give you Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectarant, instead of being induced into buying something else purely on the strength of some testimonials or the exaggerated claims of the manufacturer. The same "Money Back" guarantee goes with every bottle of this remedy sold by McNair Bros. as does with Dr. Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, and your money will be refunded if it does not give perfect satisfaction; in fact, even more, if it is not found the best remedy ever used for these affections. In buying this new remedy, besides securing the guarantee these druggists give, it will likewise be found the most economical to use; for the reason that one bottle (50 cents' worth) makes a full pint (128 teaspoonfuls) of the most excellent cough medicine, after being mixed at home with one pint of granulated sugar and one-half pint of water. One bottle will probably, therefore, be sufficient for a whole family's supply the entire winter, while the same quantity of the old, ordinary, ready-made kinds of medicine would cost between $2 and $3. It is prepared from strictly harmless plants, contains absolutely no chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic or injurious drugs as do most cough remedies, and it can therefore be given to children with perfect safety. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. Absolutely no risk whatever is run in buying this remedy under the above positive guarantee. R. J. Schiffmann, Props., St. Paul, Minn.

Margaret Illington At Page Theatre

Tomorrow night at the Page Theatre, Medford, the theatregoers of the valley who appreciate real acting and the best that there is to be had on the stage today will witness the production of "The Lie," with the great Margaret Illington in the stellar role. Miss Illington is booked for only a few steps on the coast and will not appear in Ashland.

The role of "Elinor Shale," in the big Henry Arthur Jones play, "The Lie," is generally conceded to be the best part that Miss Margaret Illington has ever played. Miss Illington finished last June at the Harris Theatre, New York city, a run of an entire year, and is at present with her New York cast and production making a comprehensive tour of the country. Any contribution made by Mr. Jones to the literature of the stage is always interesting, for he is one of England's three most distinguished playwrights, and "The Lie" is said to be intense from beginning to end. Margaret Illington has long been recognized as the foremost actress in America in the delineation of emotional parts, and she is said to handle this role with a sweep and understanding that entitles the part to a niche in her repertorial hall of fame.

"The Lie" concerns two sisters, one a sweet, modest girl, extremely honest, while the other is a grasping, cheating, lying thing. By telling a most horrible lie she wins her sister's lover for herself. For a short time it would appear that she has gained everything, but lies are difficult to keep down, and when the truth comes out, as it finally does, the elder sister's anger and resentment are superb.
